

Membership Bylaws

Original: English

Date: July 2027, 2026

MANAGEMENT

1. The CEO/ manager shall administer all matters relating to Members.
2. The CEO/ manager may forward membership applications for review by the board.
3. The CEO/ manager or board may reject any application for membership without cause.

MEMBERSHIP

4. The members of IKMA include, but are not limited to, physicians, professionals in other health-related professions, individuals in health-related specialty education, and non- health professionals.
5. Membership applications shall be obtained only through the IKMA website. An online form will be filled out on the IKMA website.
6. Members will receive confirmation of membership upon payment of the required fees, thus a subscription to the International Kingdom Medical Association and all benefits that the board has approved.
7. Individuals in health-related specialty education (students) will be granted membership without a membership fee - as free members, but with limited access to materials and products- until after completion of their studies.
8. People who registered as free members will have limited access to materials and products. Full access will be granted to them upon upgrading their membership to a pay membership.
9. Members of the board of directors will be granted life membership in IKMA after the first year of registration. No membership fee will be charged then.

TERMINATION FOR CAUSE

10. The board may terminate the membership of any member for cause. Cause for termination of membership shall consist of any action by the member that is inconsistent with IKMA purposes and objectives, or action that tends to bring IKMA, the medical profession, or the Kingdom of God into disrepute, or any action harming the reputation of IKMA. Upon terminating the membership, the board shall invite the member to respond in writing to the complaints alleged against the said member. The
